

FUTURE NATIVE TEACHERS INITIATIVE (FNTI) October 23-25, 2017

2016 FNTI Participants

Schedule

October 23

Lodging Check-in Residence Inn by Marriott
WSU Campus-Pullman
1255 NE North Fairway Dr., Pullman, WA
99163

October 24

Washington State University (CUB)
1500 Glenn Terrell Mall
Pullman, WA 99164

October 25

Washington State University (CUB)
1500 Glenn Terrell Mall
Pullman, WA 99164

START CREATING YOUR TEAM OF FUTURE TEACHERS

Designed to increase the number of Native American/Alaska Native teachers in Washington State, this event is a two-day, hands-on “teacher camp” led by teachers and leaders from the Native American/Alaska Native communities.

WHO SHOULD GO?

Teams of high school and college aged students from tribes, schools and communities. Chaperones are required for high school students. No more than 5 students and 1 chaperone per tribal/school community. Chaperones will need to register their teams. SPACE IS LIMITED!

Special thanks to Washington State University for sponsoring the FNTI college host model.

LEARN MORE

News Article

<http://tinyurl.com/za889xo>

FNTI Video

<https://youtu.be/344FS94XkaU>

REGISTRATION QUESTIONS

Tanisha Williams

twilliam@highline.edu

REGISTRATION & MEALS INCLUDED

Registration and meals during the conference are provided by Washington State University and the FNTI partners. Districts, organizations, and tribes are responsible for transportation for the students.

REGISTER HERE

<https://goo.gl/forms/ou5iLMC54ZGQp4Pm2>

Lodging Sponsored by NEA Foundation Grant

Click here to book the free lodging for students and chaperones for appropriate double occupancy. Reservations must be made by September 21, 2017.

SPONSORS

- Tribal Leaders Congress on Education
- WEA
- Washington State University
- Green River College
- Center Of Excellence
- OSPI - Office of Native Education